The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1: In part 1B, the phrase "the web server" lacks antecedent basis. In part 1C, the phrase "the next keyword" lacks antecedent basis. In part 1D, the phrases, "the current word" and "the information document" lack antecedent basis. In part 1E, the phrases "the highest score" and "the second highest score" lack antecedent basis. In part 1H, the phrase "the end" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim 2: The phrase "the times of keyword matching" is indefinite and lacks antecedent basis. The phrase "the web page filtering decision standard" lacks antecedent basis. In part 2B, the formula illustrated is indefinite because not all the variables are defined or described.

Claim 3: The phrase "the object character" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim 4: The phrase "can be achieved by the following steps" is indefinite since it is not clear whether it equates to the standard claim term " comprising" or the standard claim term "consisting of". In part 4B, it is not clear how the vocabulary probability is calculated. In part 4C, it is not clear what is meant by the phrase "significance degree of vocabulary probability".

Claims 5-6: Depend on claim 1.

Claims 1-6 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
